PULP, PAPER & WOOD INDUSTRY

Mills, Forest Products & Converting Plants

The Pulp, Paper & Wood Industry runs from sawmill operations to the manufacturing of the final wood and paper products that we use every day. The industry is a major part of economic and social development worldwide. Our coverage of the Pulp, Paper and Wood industry is global. The sectors we track include pulp, paper & wood mils, including converting plants and reconstituted wood products.

- Capital & Maintenance Projects
- Key Management Contacts
- Latest Industry News Alerts
- Plant Information
- Unit Details
- SIC Code Classifications

SECTORS INDUSTRIAL INFO COVERS

PULP PRODUCTION
Major companies engaged in the manufacturing of pulp feedstock as a product for sale, or as part of an integrated pulp and paper mill.

PAPER STOCK
Manufacturers of paper products for use in sanitary applications, book, magazine or newspaper publishing, stationary and commercial use application.

PAPERBOARD PRODUCTS MANUFACTURING
Primary producers using pulp produced on-site or purchased pulp to manufacture paperboard products.

SAW MILL OPERATIONS
Producers manufacturing lumber products such as dimension lumber, boards, studs, & wood chips from logs.

PLYWOOD AND RECONSTITUTED WOOD MILLS
Reconstituted wood products including oriented strand board, medium density fiber board and particleboard, among others.

CONVERTED PAPER & PAPERBOARD PRODUCTS
Manufacturers/converters of paper and paperboard products from purchased rolls (feedstock).

PLANT PRO FILES WITH KEY MANAGEMENT CONTACTS
Gain access to profiles on operational and pre-comissioned facilities, including key operations plant contacts. Details include plant owner and operator, physical and mailing addresses, start dates, employee count, SIC descriptions, and more.

CAPITAL & MAINTENANCE PROJECTS
Track grassroot and in-plant capital and maintenance projects that include details on key decision-makers, the scope of the project, capacity, key project milestone dates, equipment needs and E&C/subcontractor details.

UNIT DETAILS
Access detailed information on unit types such as pulp processing, power and boiler houses and paper machines.